A SOLITARY PRESENCE

Jugal Kishore Jewellers by Rajan Rastogi — Artistic & Aspirational, since 1857. Rooted in the rich heritage of Lucknow's craftsmanship, our atelier weaves a timeless legacy, where artistry and tradition blend seamlessly. With every creation, we celebrate the allure of old-world charm, while embracing the beauty of modern-day elegance. Meticulously sourced from across the globe, our masterpieces are crafted into rare heirlooms that define true distinction and unrivaled sophistication.

FATHER-SON ALLIANCE

With bold foresight, Mr. Kamal Kishore Rastogi reimagined tradition into modernity. Establishing the city's first contemporary retail store and transcending the gaddi system, he expanded access to fine jewellery while preserving its sanctity—a stride that defined the brand's progressive cadence.

Carrying forward this lineage, Mr. Rajan Rastogi ushered a dialogue between heritage and evolution. By pioneering certified diamond jewellery in Uttar Pradesh, he enshrined the house as an emblem of trust, craftsmanship, and uncompromising standards—elevating legacy into a language of enduring excellence.

Today, Mr. Raghava Rastogi advances the maison with audacious refinement. Blending artisanal mastery with cutting-edge technology, curating rare gemstones, and sculpting with elemental materials like titanium and carbon fibre, he crafts jewels of sovereign boldness—creations that are contemporary keepsakes, timeless heirlooms destined to gleam across generations.

THE PRECISION OF LEGACY

Jugal Kishore Jewellers is a legacy where precision is not measured but lived.
